The PLUME SILON PHI

The Creed of Tau Opsilon Phi

To LIVE in the light of friendship—to judge our fellows not by their rank nor wealth but by their worth as men—to hold eternally before us the memory of those whom we have loved and lost—to hold forth in the solidarity of our brotherhood the nobility of action which will make for the preservation of our highest and worthiest aim—and thus be true to the ideal of friendship—

To WALK in the path of chivalry—to be honorable to all men and defend that honor—to fulfill our given pledge at all times—to be true to the precepts of knighthood and win the love and care of the women of our dreams—and thus be true to the ideal of chivalry—

To SERVE for the love of service—to give unselfishly that which we may have to offer—to do voluntarily that which must be done—to revere God and to strive in His worship at all times—and thus be true to the ideal of service—

To PRACTICE each day friendship—chivalry—service—thus keeping true to these—the three ideals—of the founders of our fraternity—this is the Creed of Tau Epsilon Phi.

Editorial Offices, 130 W. 42nd St., New York 36, N. Y. Mailed regularly to National Chapter members, dues $5.00 per year, which includes membership of $2.00 and subscription of $3.00. Second class postage paid at St. Paul, Minnesota.

ON THE COVER

Twas a happy day for a group of thirty Penn State undergrads, mostly freshmen and sophomores, at a banquet held early in June. They had just learned officially that they could become Tau Epsilon Phi's newest colony, Epsilon Phi, the fifty-fifth fraternity at Penn State.

fifty-fifth fraternity at Penn State.

Here, Murray Rosen (right), first Chancellor of Epsilon Phi, receives congratulations from Penn State's Assistant Dean Wilmer
Wise. Advisor to fraternities, Martin Leshner, is ready to offer his congratulations after having much to do with the group's early success. (Story on page 3.)

CARILLON CHOSEN CONVENTION SITE

From August 25th through 28th of 1963, the luxurious Carillon Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida, will entertain several hundred TEPmen and women during the forthcoming national fraternity convention. The Carillon, oceanfront at 68th Street, plans to provide all social and recreational facilities of the hotel at the disposal of the fraternity. Costs for the four-day convention will be lower than the most recent national gatherings.

Centrally located in Miami Beach, the Carillon rates an outstanding reputation. Included within the convention program will be two banquets and a formal dinner-dance, a Polynesian Luau to the music of an oriental ensemble, several daylight excursion trips, moonlight swimming, and the continuous music and star entertainment as found in the Tambourine Lounge. A presenta-tion of the then current Lou Walters' production in the hotel's Cafe Le Can Can, a most highly rated nightclub in the area, will also be included.

Plans are underway to acquire golfing usage for the conventioneers at the famed Doral Country Club with a waiver of green fees. Special convention rates have also been set for those who will wish to remain over the Labor Day Weekend (costs will be published in the next edition of the Plume.)

As usual, the convention will be open to all TEPmen, graduate or undergraduate, and their guests. Awards for the coming school year will be presented to the chapters, alumni, and individual undergraduates for their outstanding service, while meetings of the Grand Chapter will also be held.

TAKE NOTICE

Ed. Note: Through the recommendation of several brothers, the PLUME will next year award the TEP undergraduate brother achieving the highest excellence in athletics (varsity and/or intramural) with a story and picture. Coinciding with the new annual TEP athlete-ofthe-year, will be a story and picture dedicated to a national Sweetheart and court. It is hoped that when chapters apply for national and individual awards, they will also submit pictures and information about the outstanding athlete within the chapter, and their chapter sweetheart. The summer edition of the magazine will contain the winners.

The Editors would like alumni to supply the magazine with information about themselves, and notices concerning engagements, marriages, and births. Any news concerning individual undergraduate recognition would also be appreciated.

ILLINOIS & NO. CAROLINA RECEIVE TOP HONORS

Two of Tau Epsilon Phi's oldest chapters, Psi of Illinois and Omega of North Carolina, proved to be the fraternity's best this past year and won the Irving Golembe Chapter of Merit Trophy. In unprecedented action, the Awards Committee selected two chapters rather than the usual one realizing the similar capabilities of the winning chapters. During the past year, both chapters did well in rushing, scholarship, finances, campus activities and relations, and maintained suitable contact with other chapters and with the national office. It is the first time that either of these chapters has won the award in several years as Nu of Georgia either won or finished runner-up during the past five

VOTE BIENNIAL ALUM AWARDS

The committee decided not to give any alumni awards since, without a convention being held this vear, there is no suitable occasion when such awards could be presented. The committee voted to henceforth give alumni awards only during convention years. Another action taken by the committee named certain chapters to awards for which they did not apply. Basis for these selections came from reports taken by national officials, communications received from the school and chapters, and alumni reports. In the future, the committee stated only chapters that apply for awards will be selected.

Another excellent chapter of the fraternity, Zeta Lambda Phi of Temple, gained recognition by winning the Samuel J. Lefrak Campus Achievement Trophy by showing outstanding achievement in extra-curricular and intra-mural activities. Zeta Lamb is represented by four brothers on the student council, a class president, president of several honorary societies, won first prize for Homecoming Decorations, finished second by one point for the All Sports Trophy and includes several varsity athletes. Tau Beta of Maryland and Gamma,

NYU, placed runnersup.

Although a small chapter numbering under 40 brothers, Tau Iota, Dalhousie, proved the most efficient by winning the Charles Driesden Chapter Efficiency Trophy. Chan-cellored by Marvin Brook, Tau Iota experienced one of its top years highlighted by an excellent ad book, three pledge classes, and amazing coöperation with the alumni, national, the community, and other fraternities at the school. Epsilon Eta, Drexel, and Alpha Beta, American, placed second.

WEAK SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Tau Psi, Newark College of Engineering, proved victorious in consideration as TEP's most improved chapter by winning the Louis Lebenthal Trophy. Over the past four years, Tau Psi shows consistent growth, internal development, and is fast becoming one of the better chapters within the fraternity. Two chapters which many feared losing last September fared well in rushing and other matters and fin-ished runnersup: Epsilon Kappa, Tulane, and Tau Mu of Connecticut. Both runnerup chapters pledged over twenty during the past

Without any doubt, the committee selected Phi Eta, Johns Hopkins, as a repeat winner of the John Kleinberger Scholarship Trophy. Four of Phi Eta's eight graduating seniors are Phi Beta Kappas, and the chapter itself averaged 3.2 out of 4 (last year 3.1). Tau Zeta's (Maine) consistent scholastic improvement over the past three years and Alpha Beta's (American) good showing over the past year earned these groups runnerup awards.

Omicron (McGill) became the second Canadian chapter to win an award this year by receiving the Louis Fein Grand Chaplain Award signifying devoted charitable and communal service to campus and community. Epsilon Lambda (CC-NY), last year's winner, finished

The Charles Tobias Plume Trophy was awarded to Rho Delta Rho (Illinois Tech) ending domination of this award by Nu of Georgia and Bro. Alan Gardner, now graduated. This trophy signifies excellence of stories and pictures submitted to the Plume. Kappa Zeta Phi, a new chapter at Northeastern, won its first national award placing second.

Tau Lambda of Purdue, mainly thanks to Chancellor David Neuberger who is also the school newspaper's editor, won the New Jersey Chapter Publications Award. Epsilon Lambda of CCNY was runner-

EPSILON PHI BECOMES NEWEST TEP COLONY

A little over two months ago, two letters from students at Pennsylvania State University arrived in the national offices. Both letters requested TEP assistance in starting a colony at Penn State. Executive Secretary Sidney Suntag viewed the letters with hesitance; after all, several previous attempts at organizing a TEP group at Penn State had failed.

Previously committed to attending a fraternity executives meeting at State, Brother Suntag decided to meet the authors of the letters and their cohorts while at State College. His first meeting showed little as only a handful of students attended, but the next night things really began rolling. Nearly 20 came to the meeting, and although Penn State already has 54 well-established fraternities, Brother Suntag sensed the beginnings of another highly qualified chapter.

Blessed with the approval of the Dean's office and student body, the group under the guidance of Assistant Dean of Men Martin Leshner and Brother Suntag, soon swelled to thirty. Meeting weekly, the boys elected Murray Rosen, a freshman from Pittsburgh as their first Chancellor. Two brothers from other chapters, Arnold Hecht (Mu) and Bernard Dudock (Epsilon Lambda) became active with Brother Dudock acting as advisor.

During the visit of Field Secretary Ron Drogin, the colony termed Epsilon Phi found a house excellently located being just across the street from the campus. Although the house will be able to sleep only 15, the colony view it happily as the home of their first year of activity, and hope that they will be visited by many brothers from other chapters.

Rushing chairman Lloyd Mallin optimistically views the future, although he and the group realize the outside competition should be keen. But when official recognition of the colony came from the school early in June (the Grand Council okayed the colony during its spring meeting), the group realized its first major goal. A second major event occured immediately preceding the end of school, Epsilon Phi's first spring banquet attended and enjoyed by the members, Dean Wilmer Wise, and Leshner. By next year's banquet, it is hoped chapter status will be obtained.

GOLDMAN NAMED TO FLORIDA SUPREME COURT

An Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, brother Phillip Goldman currently rates highly among the nation's jurists. Since becoming a member of the Florida Bar in 1948, brother Goldman has achieved the position of Associate Judge, District Court of Appeal in his state's Third District.

In December of 1960, he was appointed to the Circuit Court Bench by Florida Governor LeRoy Collins. He has served continuously since that date, and has disposed of approximately 1000 cases through January of this year.

A former Chancellor of Tau Alpha Chapter at the University of Florida, brother Goldman participates within several professional and civic organizations. He was a charter member of the Key Biscayne Kiwanis Club, and later became president of the Key Biscayne Civic Association. He is a member of the Parent Teachers Association of South Miami Elementary schools, the Harvard Law School Association, and the University of Florida Alumni Association.

ALUMNI HOLD GATHERINGS

For two of Tau Epsilon Phi's oldest chapters, 1962 has become an alumni reunion year. Columbia's Alpha chapter celebrated its 51st Anniversary with a cocktail party, dinner and meeting, while Tau Xi Chapter of Miami held its twenty-fifth year reunion in a week long gathering in Miami during April.

Over 50 brothers attended Alpha's anniversary party held at the fraternity house and at Ferris Booth Hall in New York. Entertained by brothers Saul Turteltaub and Len Korobkin, the alumni association elected a board of directors to assist the undergraduate c h a p t e r. Dr. Israel Schwartz, one of the founders of the fraternity, became Honorary Chairman, while Milt Mound was elected Chairman of the Board. Other officers will be Julie Katzen, president; Stan Rubenfeld, executive vice-president; Stan Schachter, executive secretary; Fred Ronai, secretary; Norm Cohen, treasurer; and George Behrens, Charles Tobias, Max Lovell, Dick Kuh, Josh Greenberg, Mark Luftig, Jerry Engelberg, Sam Strober, and Sy Moskowitz directors.

Recently, title to the chapter house located at 115th Street passed to the Alpha Alumni Association, Inc., a corporation comprised of all members of the chapter. The dues were set at $5.00 per year which includes national dues, while Brother Fred Ronai is handling announcements and correspondence.

For Tau Xi Chapter, the week of April 2-7 became anniversary week with as many as 100 brothers participating. Staying at Miami Beach's Beau Rivage hotel, the group enjoyed a formal dinner, sight seeing tours, an evening dedicated to the first pledge class, cocktail parties, and a luncheon at the University with the undergraduates.

Ideas for the affair began when a group of the original founders met with Brothers Stanley Blackman and Henry Warsharsky making definite plans. With the aid of local Miami alumni under the directions of Irving "Doc" Lebow, the anniversary became reality.

Highlighting the week's activities was a formal dinner held at the Beau Rivage. Brother Warsharsky had the honor of pledge pinning his son Robert, the first son of a founder to be pledged in the chapter. Several alumni from Tau Alpha chapter, Florida, attended. Brothers Jack Mintzer and Hy Kock received plaques for their help in building Tau Xi's new chapter house.

"Give me an M," hollers University of Maine Mayor Cedric "Rick" Minkin of Tau Zeta Chapter. Bro. Minkin received high praise for his efforts in raising the spirit of the student body this past year.

Brothers Excel In Varsity Sports

BRO. ROBERT VOGEL, Tau Delta (Ohio State). Starting tackle past two seasons on nation's top team; all-American candidate for coming year. Vice-chancellor of
BRO. GERRY GREENSPAN,

BRO. GERRY GREENSPAN, Tau Beta (Maryland). Starred for varsity basketball team as sophomore. Active in chapter activities, and aids chapter's sensational intramural basketball team which won all Washington, D. C., tournaments. BRO. RODNEY MANDLE-STAM, Tau Xi (Miami). Number one man on Miami's famed varsity tennis team as a soph. He was 1959 Wimbledon Junior champ, and doubles with Bro. John Hammil as top doubles team for varsity. He is the chapter's co-chairman for social and athletic events. Bro. Mandlestam also started at halfback for the varsity soccer team, and was named to first team Florida intercollegiate All Stars.

BRO. HARVEY HARRISON, Tau Theta (George Washington). A sophomore varsity tennis player with a fine record of tennis success while in high school in the New England area. He is presently playing third man for the GW Tennis varsity.

BRO. ERVIN SCHOENBLUM, Tau Psi (Newark). Winner of national Extra-curricular activities key, he captained varsity tennis team past two years, won the school's badminton championship the past three years, and starred in intramural volleyball and basketball.

Teps Maintain Interest In Campus Activities

Several undergraduate brothers of the fraternity gained prestige and success for themselves and their chapters during this past school year. Many brothers excelled in athletics, student government, school organizations, and academics. Almost every chapter can claim at least a few members who are well known on campus for their extracurricular activities. Needless to say, the fraternity applauds these members, and hopes future years bring far more TEPmen to the forefront in extra-curricular activities.

Some TEP undergraduates who have made good in 1961-62

BRO. STEPHEN B. ROSEN-BERG, Tau Omega 198 (Rhode Island), a junior, elected president of the school's Student Senate. An active member of the chapter, he served the fraternity as rush chairman, historian, and parliamentarian. Besides maintaining above average grades, Brother Rosenberg was president of the URI Committee Upholding Racial Equality, (CURE) a reporter on the student newspaper, and assistant advertising manager of the yearbook. Bro. Rosenberg was nominated by Tau Omega for the national Extra-Curricular activities award, and received it.

BRO. ELLIOTT ROBERT BARKAN, Epsilon Theta 70 (Queens), was awarded a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship for graduate study next year. The Fellowship award covers a full year's tuition and fees at a graduate school of his choice and a living allowance of $1500. Last year, Bro. Barkan won the National Scholarship Key.

BR. ERIC DOBKIN, Epsilon Pi (Marietta), was elected president of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensics honorary, while Bro. Robert Dryfoos became vice president. Both brothers are officers of their chapter, a group which includes many brethren active in school affairs.

BRO. DON HOLLANDER, Epsilon Eta (Drexel), presently holds two major positions simultaneously. Recently elected Chancellor of the chapter for the coming school year, he is also president of the Drexel student body, and a member of the senior honorary society. He won an Extra-curricular Activities key.

BRO. RONALD BRATSPIS, Zeta Lambda Phi (Temple), received a national Extra-curricular activities key for many reasons. Bro. Bratspis edited the Temple University News, the fraternity handbook, and the Interfraternity Newspaper. He was a delegate to the National Student Association, and the winner of the Interfraternity Award as the outstanding Greek at Temple. He served the chapter as historian, parliamentarian, and publicity chairman.

BRO. DAVID NEUBERGER, Tau Lambda (Purdue) amazes fellow brothers by the amount of work he produces. Not only is Brother Neuberger chancellor of the chapter for the second successive season, but he also is the editor of the school newspaper. He is active on IFC as a member of the judicial board, and rush committee. Bro. Neuberger, who averages 4.71 out of a maximum 6, is a member of the school's top honorary societies including Gimlet, Skull and Crescent.

Stephen Rosenberg, Tau Omega

At the annual New England TEP alumni banquet, Brother Joseph Ford (r) received the area's TEPman-of-the-Year award from last year's recipient Bro. Clarence Berger (I). Brother Ford is prominent in industry. Also seen is Brother Richard Barkin, President of the New England Alumni Association.

Did you ever sit down and take stock of yourself
And see how lucky you are?
Just think how you could be of HELP
To less fortunate Brothers, both near and far.
The Lord has blessed many of us with worldly goods

Much more than we normally have use for,

So wouldn't it be wonderful to get into the mood

To share with those that need more.

Many more Brothers could be materially helped

If we would but dig down deep To make the road to their goals amply assured

And look at the pleasures we'd reap.

Please help by sending your check NOW to the Tau Epsilon Phi Scholarship and Student Aid Fund, 130 West 42nd Street, New York 36, N. Y. (tax deductible). President of the Fund is Dr. A. I. Cohen, 491 Commonwealth Avenue in Boston, Massachusetts. Bro. Jack A. King of Philadelphia is vice president, and Bro. Samuel W. Strauss of Camden, New Jersey, is secretary-treasurer.

Scholarship Named For Brother Lowe By Sigma Delta Chi

The establishment of a $500 journalism scholarship in memory of the late Washington newsman, Bro. Herman A. Lowe, was announced in May by Sigma Delta Chi Journalism fraternity. Bro. Lowe, a member of Rho Chapter at Pennsylvania, became a distinguished journalist and worked for the Washington bureau of the Philadelphia Inquirer, and contributed frequent articles to national magazines. He also was a guest lecturer in several journalism classes. Bro. Lowe served three years as Director of Development and Public Relations of the Albert Einstein Medical Center in Philadelphia.

The Herman A. Lowe Memorial Scholarship in Journalism was established to help worthy students who need financial assistance to continue their full-time schooling in pursuit of a journalistic career. The first of these annual scholarships will be awarded for the coming school year to a student who is presently a sophomore or junior at American, Catholic, Georgetown, George Washington, Howard or the University of Maryland.

New England Alumni Award Given To Ford

The New England TEP alumni recently held their annual banquet and gave several awards to outstanding alumni and undergraduates in the area. Held during April at the MIT Faculty Dinner Club, nearly a hundred alumni attended the awards dinner.

Honorary Brother Joseph Ford received the New England TEPman-of-the-Year award. Brother Ford, a prominent industrialist and philanthropist, was presented a plaque in recognition of his contributions to the New England college community. He is a trustee of Brandeis and Northeastern Universities, and finds time to devote his energies to remaining colleges in the Boston area. Last year, Bro. Clarence Ber-ger, Tau Zeta, (Me.), received the award. Bro. Berger, who is the Executive Dean and assistant to the President at Brandeis, presented the award to Bro. Ford.

The undergraduate New England TEPman - of - the - Year award was won by Brother Al Weinberg of Epsilon Delta at Dartmouth College. He has been very active in undergraduate activities while attending school.

Several alumni received awards for outstanding service to their respective chapters or colleges. Dr. Samuel Lopatin, Gamma, gained an award through his untiring efforts aiding Epsilon Xi chapter at Clark during their first year of activity. Brother Robert Gordon, Tau Pi, received an award for his work as President of his alma mater's alumni association (Univ. Massachusetts), while Brother Nat Lash's assistance to Kappa chapter at Vermont won him an award.

Brother Richard Barkin, Assistant Tribune of the national fraternity, presided over the affairs as President of the New England Alumni Association.

Alumni News

LAWRENCE BERNARD, Sigma (Syracuse), was recently promoted to Senior Editor of Advertising Age, New York, in charge of international news. Brother Bernard joined the weekly publication as a reporter shortly after graduation in 1950, and subsequently was named an associate editor. In his new appointment, Brother Bernard continues with his domestic news activities, but in addition, is now in charge of world-wide advertising news coverage as well.

JERRY LINKIN, Theta (Boston Un.), was recently elected to the Vice-Presidency of the California-Israel Chamber of Commerce after serving two years as a member of the Board of Directors and public relations chairman of the organization. The Chamber functions to develop tourism, commerce and industry between the U.S. west coast and Israel, Bro. Linkin is presently West Coast Sales Manager of EL Al Airlines.

LOUIS A. KASS, Delta (Cornell), a lawyer, is lecturing at many of the outstanding colleges on topics concerning his field. Recently, Bro. Kass returned to Cornell to lecture on the difference between law school finals and the bar examinations. He has been lecturing on New York pleading and practice.

MARVIN EDELMAN, SYDNEY JAFFE, Tau Mu (Connecticut), own and direct a sports camp in Connecticut featuring several leading professional athletes. The camp, open to teenagers, includes three separate athletic clinics. Bro. Edelman has been a camp director now for 18 years, while Bro. Jaffe is a radio-tv sportscaster and public relations counsel.

JACK M. KURTZ, Omega (North Carolina) presently heads a plywood and lumber company in Charleston, South Carolina. He built a $3 million a year business out of a $1250 investment in the short space of six years. Efforts by Bro. Kurtz and his employees have resulted in a number of honors, including the company's selection in May of 1960 as a certified Home Improvement Center by American Home magazine.

DR. NORMAN ROSENBLATT, Kappa Zeta Phi (Northeastern) an assistant professor of history at his alma mater, and advisor to the fraternity chapter, has been awarded a Fulbright Scholarship by the State Dept. Recently named TEP "Man of the Year," by the chapter, Dr. Rosenblatt will leave this summer for Spain, where he will be a research scholar at the University of Madrid, during the 1962-63 academic year, devoting his study to Spanish Intelligence in the Levant under Phillip II. He is a member of the American Historical Association, and the Medieval Academy and the Conference on British Studies.

SAMUEL J. LEFRAK, Tau Beta (Maryland), recently wrote an article in the April '62 issue of "Overview," a periodical directed to educational executives. Bro. Lefrak, a leading apartment builder, offered blunt advice in his article aimed at these executives, and recommends that city and town governments must revise their codes governing today's conditions in mass housing and mass education.

DR. S. BENEDICT LEVIN, Alpha (Columbia) is deputy director of the Institute for Exploratory Research, U. S. Army Signal Research and Development Laboratory, and has been given a Public Law 313 position, a Civil Service distinction reserved for outstanding scientists and professional men. Bro. Levin is recognized as an expert in electronic use of minerals and synthetic minerological materials.

UNDERGRADUATE CHAPTER NEWS

Maryland, Tau Beta

Tau Beta Chapter of Tau Epsilon Phi during the last two years established an athletic record hard to surpass. The basketball team must be rated as one of the finest fraternity teams ever assembled. During the past two seasons, Tau Beta's cagers amassed 32 consecutive victories, without a loss, winning several championships. With the five starters placing on the University of Maryland's All-Star Team, the squad won the interfraternity and university intramural championship and Metropolitan Washington Invitational Basketball Tourna-

Height and speed feature Tau Beta's attack. Paced by Maryland's most valuable intramural basketball player, 6'3" Howard Heiss, the team includes Steve Alpert, 6'4"; Bruce Dribbon, 6'2"; Joel Sherman, 6' and a former high school Maryland All-Stater; plus playmaking guard George Hodor, 5'10", and a former high school star from Queens, New York. Other players include Clark Goldstein, Joe Forster, Roger Kaplan, Al Bernstein, Jay Brecker, and Mike Krongard.

Supported by large attendance at each game by an enthusiastic chapter, the team plays an exciting game and displays an offense of fast breaks with many various attacking patterns. Recently, Tau Beta sponsored a basketball game against the Baltimore Colts playing for charity. Tau Beta won the game 49-42, leaving the college boys with various bumps and bruises but happy over the success the event generated.

Tau Beta also finished second in intramural football competition, won the ping-pong tournament behind Brother Clark Goldstein, one of the best players in the country. Recently, the chapter won the interfraternity volleyball championship.

Tau Beta not only excels in sports, but in recent elections throughout the campus two brothers won offices. Brother Joe Forster, former chancellor, was elected as Interfraternity Council treasurer, and Treasurer of the Senior Class. Brother Irv Gellman was elected President of the Men's League, U. of Maryland.—Joe Forster, Larry Bennett

North Carolina, Omega

Omega chapter is packing up and getting ready to go home. The brothers are completing their finals and grades are now arriving. The chapter held its position in Carolina's scholastic rankings, as Omegamen continued to make outstanding grades. As the members leave, they know they've done a good job.

Leaving, everyone has looked forward to it for some weeks now. North Carolina experienced beautiful weather and Omegamen were in the midst of the fun-loving, carefree crowd going to the Beach each weekend. And now, back to the home beaches—

Then, of course, eight of Omega's outstanding brothers won't be enrolling in UNC next year. The army, medical school, law school, graduate business school, and marriage await them. In line with their accomplishments, a grateful Omega feted the eight at a banquet. They contributed a very great deal to Omega's bright tradition, but their sojourn is over. Moving on are Dick Savitt, Aaron Levy, Paul Planer, Ed Manning, Barry Adler, Sheldon Fogel, Martin Van Dyne, and Barry Portnoy.

Fifteen new brothers have been initiated. They know they have a rich heritage to uphold, and the chapter has full confidence that these initiates will soon fulfill the responsibilities and duties inherent in being a brother, and fully participate in Omega.

Forty-seven brothers are going home, but in September, they will return to the chapter with plans for success, personal and chaptorial. Already the rush machinery is being oiled to perfection for the fall. Rushees can expect a comprehensive rush, as Omega plans to again attract the high quality boys for which it is known. A party schedule, which, if it is only half as good as this past year's, should make the god Bacchus delight, has already been arranged.

But Omegamen aren't homebodies. Recent election of brothers Lou Legum as Yearbook editor-in-chief, and Martin Freedland as University Dance Committee chairman illustrate Omega's growing influence on campus.

Yes, Omegamen are going home to their families, girls, and jobs. But in September, these brothers will all come, not as lemmings with an unknowing urge, but as brothers with a desire to see each other again, work together again, and contribute to each other's success and the continuing success of Omega.

Tau Epsilon Phi-Omega Chapter, a rich heritage, and a brilliant future (Ed. Note: Omega was co-recipient of Chapter of Merit trophy this year).—Ken Toppell

"Old chancellors never die, they just fade away," as Jack Yellin (1), the old, administers the installation rites to his successor, Martin Ustin, of Tau Psi Chapter at Newark College of Engineering.

N.C.E., Tau Psi

On Friday, May 11, 1962, Chancellor Jack Yellin turned the gavel of Tau Psi chapter over to Chancellor-elect Marty Ustin, ending our most successful year (one in which the fraternity's membership more than doubled), and opening the way to an even more successful one. All persons present at this induction dinner, whether active brothers or invited faculty members, could not help being aware of the fantastic changes which have and still are occurring at TEP NCE.

Early in the school year, the brothers finished the remodeling of the chapter meeting room. Within a few weeks, plans were drawn up under the able leadership of senior brother Bill Klein, for a new paneled formica bar. By the end of midsemester break, Tau Psi had a new bar plus the added bonus of rise in fraternalism stemming from brothers working together on a common project.

Housing improvements are not Tau Psi's only projects. An extra active Community Service Committee headed by Brother Armand Berliner organized successful projects as the pledge fund raising campaign for Derbora and the second annual outing for the boys of St. Peter's Orphanage. The athletic committee increased the chapters participation in interfraternity sports to a new height, and organized baseball games between the brothers every Friday.

On the social scene, Tau Psi proved far from dormant. A list of all the parties would alone fill a page as they ran the gamut from Hay Rides to Theater Parties, and even to a boat ride up the Hudson.

The "bridge-builders" of the chapter have been considering buying the entire house for several years, and now only is their foresight becoming reality. Through a cigarette-collecting contest (in which the chapter won a Hi-Fi set), a close relationship has grown between Tau Psi and Epsilon Eta at Drexel. In the past year, the transportation of empty cigarette packs between Philadelphia and Newark jumped a thousand per cent.

It really has been a great year for Tau Psi, and it will be an even better one next year. Just ask new Pledge Warden Stu Davis, who is now working madly on strategy for the largest rushing campaign Tau Psi has ever attempted. (Ed. Note: Tau Psi proved national's most improved chapter by winning the Louis Lebenthal trophy.)—Allen Katz

American, Alpha Beta

Some chapters start off slow and some start off fast. Alpha Beta began meteorically. Only a chapter of TEP little more than two years, established at American University for three and one half years, Alpha Beta still exists in a room located in the school's main building. This room, 15' by 23', is house and home to 43 brothers. Prospects for getting land on campus are non-existent, and to rent or buy a house in the immediate American U. area is like trying to get a fraternity house on 42nd Street.

During rushing, the chapter hits first, hardest and longest. By using the image with the freshman as being the friendliest guys on campus, Alpha Beta again this year, as in the previous two years, took the largest freshman pledge class on campus. Among that class hap-pened to be the freshman class president (Alpha Beta has pledged and initiated a class president every year) and the starting guard on the basketball varsity (he is also the star of the baseball team hitting .432 near the end of the season).

The brothers are also active in campus affairs. An Alpha Beta is vice president of the junior class, editor of the school newspaper, treasurer of the IFC, homecoming chairman, elections committee chairman, both starting guards on varsity basketball team, starting first baseman and pitcher on varsity baseball squad, second man on varsity tennis team, member on swimming team, and the captain and most valuable player on the varsity soccer team.

Alpha Beta won the IFC Scholarship Cup (Ed. Note: chapter placed runnerup for national scholarship trophy). The chapter also won the Greek Skit night, and missed the IFC Athletic Trophy by just two

G. Washington, Tau Theta

Tau Theta chapter just completed another very successful year. When rush began in the fall, we remodeled our basement. This became the site for many fabulous parties, and doubled as the chapter dining room.

The social season proved to be a fine one under the direction of Ira Schandler, social chairman. Some of his imaginative parties included a visa versa, jungle, Roman Toga, Hobo, Pajama, and Homecoming Float party. The social highlight of the year was the Sweetheart Dance where Susan Scher became Chapter Sweetheart.

The TEPS also forged ahead on campus. Some of the activities the brothers engaged were: Chairman and two subchairmen of Homecoming, chairman of Fall Concert; President, secretary, and membership chairman of the Pre-med Honorary Society; Vice-president of Gate and Key; two members on Student Council; two brothers elected to Who's Who in American Colleges; President of the dormitory and officers of many other campus organizations.

Scholastically, Tau Theta ranks among the top on campus, and has the third highest

Maine, Tau Zeta

For Tau Zeta chapter, 1961-62 proved one of the chapter's best years. Socially, Tau Zeta saw over a third of the membership become pinned, and recognized that an active social schedule helped make this possible. Scholastically, the chapter improved from a lowly 17th a few semesters ago to a highly respectable fourth (Ed. Note: Tau Zeta finished runnerup for Kleinberger Scholarship Trophy) with almost all of a graduating class of twelve planning to further their education in graduate school.

Speaking about the graduating seniors, they rate as the top class to graduate from the chapter in over a decade. From their membership came a campus Mayor, Rick "Reggie Van" Minkin; a Winter Carnival chairman, Henry Binder; a tennis captain, Dave O'Donnell; a Greek Weekend chairman and capable chancellor, Mike Mandell; a Student Senate leader in Stan Schneider; and a proctor, Richard Bodette. Other Tau Zetans leaving the school are Fred Lord, Andy Blum, Art Newman, Jeff Podell, Gene Salin, and Arnie Baker.

A crowning achievement of the year resulted when Tau Zeta finished a close second in the Greek Weekend Chariot Race, the first time this fraternity QPI. Athletically, the chapter finished in third place in intramurals, and was awarded the Sportsmanship trophy at the last intramural banquet.

The year ended with the Annual Spring Weekend and now, the chapter looks forward to a highly successful rush this fall.

New officers for the coming year are: Chancellor Larry Levine, Vice-Chancellor Ira Schandler, Scribe Eric Fine, Bursar Richard Ellman, Warden Leo Breitman, Historian Aaron Blum, Chaplain Tom Gutterman, and member-at-large Steve Haenal.—Aaron Blum event has ever been held. Chapter brothers made the quarter-finals in the intramural tennis championships, and finished fifth in bowling. All told, the chapter completed the intramural sports season in the upper half of the 17 fraternities.

This year, TEP held several joint parties with other fraternities on campus including Teke and Sig Ep. All Tau Zeta parties were well attended by visitors from campus, and proved that once again TEPS topped Maine socially. Themes used were Toga, Pajama, Traif, and Folk, not to mention the annual Hades Hop, and Fall and Spring Houseparties where Miss Judy Joel became sweetheart.

Columbia, Alpha

As the school year draws to a close, Alpha chapter can look back over the semester with considerable pride. The brothers became active in all facets of campus activity.

On the sports scene, TEPs captained the tennis and bowling teams and played important roles on the wrestling and swimming squads. The "politics" of the chapter triumphed by winning the presidency of the Young Republicans Club and the vice-presidencies of the Columbia Student Council and the sophomore class

Our more musically inclined brothers, frustrated by our sometimestuned piano, reacted by infiltrating the College Band. With Bursar Chuck Braun as Head Manager, the Band is rapidly becoming a refuge for TEP musicians.

Alpha excellence is illustrated in the scholastic field. A list of those brothers winning Dean's list honors and Phi Beta Kappa keys is too long to be included here. Many of the top-flight graduate schools are discovering that TEPS ARE TOPS, as our acceptance from them show.

The chapter excelled collectively under the leadership of chancellors Jerry Engleberg and now Seymour Moskowitz. The annual Interfraternity Council (Pamphratria) Spring Carnival, designed to help raise money for the Columbia College Scholarship Fund, is illustrative of chapter efficiency. Five members of the Carnival committee and the chairman were TEPs. Alpha received a cup for outstanding participation in the Carnival, and a cup for best booth, making the third time in five years TEP has won.

This year, Alpha's booth was titled "Elephant Walk" consisting of a carousel standing mounted composition-board elephants. The entire rear of the booth was spanned by a mural depicting a circus scene, and covering the sides were sheets with more paintings. The entire booth, with the exception of a motor, was constructed by the brotherhood. The object of our game of chance was to hit an elephant's eye with a dart while the carousel was moving. Although the game was difficult, the student response was so great that many brothers were unable to get through the crowd to try their luck.

After the carnival, Alpha held an Open House for the entire student body. Thanks to Brother Sandy Schlesinger, who was in charge of Carnival, we were able to obtain the talents of one of the bands which performed at Carnival. Here again the response was so great that many couples were unable to display their twisting ability.

The rest of our social program was equally successful. One particular highlight was the Spring Formal. Based on a polynesian theme, the Formal provided a mixture of oriental food, ornamental leis, drinking out of pineapples, and, of course twisting.

Another memorable moment this year, not part of the planned social program, was our picketing of the British Consulate on Washington's Birthday. Parodying the many protest-marches which have become the vogue, the brothers carried signs with such slogans as "Better Dead than Red-Coat", "Washington Si, George III No", and "Lobsterbacks Go Home". Unfortunately, the Consulate was closed in observance of the holiday! However, our antics were duly recorded for posterity by the New York Herald Tribune.

I.I.T., Rho Delta Rho

The spring semester at IIT proved a busy one for the Rho Delta Rho chapter. After becoming firmly established in our new house, the chapter opened the spring social season with a terrific rush dance following a Polynesian theme. Helping to make the rush dance a success was an indoor barbecue featuring shish-kabob. A beautiful indoor fountain and pond was used for decorations.

A week later, seven men were inducted as pledges of the Rho Delta Rho chapter. As the semester progressed, TEP social activities included various mixers, a beatnik party, two after-theater parties, and a folk-song hootinany climaxing the mid-semester IFC interfraternity open house, when out-of-town prospective students stayed in fraternity houses for the weekend.

As the semester drew to a close, the social season wound up its activities with some unsurpassed events. The pledge dance, called the "Black Mark", turned out to be one of the finest events held by the chapter. A night-club setting with tables lit by candlelight, and music provided by a four-piece combo set the scene of this affair. The semi-annual event, which included the traditional satirical pledge play was thoroughly enjoyed by the brotherhood.

UConn, Tau Mu

Tau Mu proudly announces this past year proved TEPS ARE TOPS in all aspects. When the chapter returned to school in September only 16 brothers were present at first roll call; but with absolute necessity of reaching at least 40 men or being forced off campus, Tau Mu's entire membership grouped together for the most important rush period the chapter ever faced. Aided by national, the chapter pledged over 30 men this year, surpassing the requirements and acquiring excellent quality within the pledge class. Among the new members is Myron Krasij, a fantastic soccer player who set the school scoring record and became an All-American. He hopefully looks forward to scoring a minimum of 22 goals this coming season.

Socially, the chapter met success under the direction of Brothers Joel Kipperman and Steve Greenberg. A series of record parties coinciding with themes like the "Untouchables", "Roaring 20's", and "Peppermint Lounge" added up to big weekends. The annual events of Yale-UConn Weekend in New Haven and Founders' Weekend also proved successful.

The chapter entered intramurals winning the tennis championship and placing respectively in other events. In the biggest campus activity of the year, the Community Chest Carnival, Tau Mu placed third in the float parade and its booth did well also. The chapter participated in holding a Christmas Party for mentally retarded children from a nearby institution.

Scholastically, Tau Mu's improvement clearly showed. (Ed. Note: Tau Mu Chapter finished runnerup as most improved chapter this year.) Tau Mu finished sixth out of 22 fraternities on campus and well above the All Men's average.

"Man, let's get out of the city for a weekend." Several Epsilon Lambda's (CC-NY) seen here recently visited Washington, D. C. acting on this urge. Wonder if they saw Jack.

CCNY, Epsilon Lambda

In its few short years of existence, Epsilon Lambda experienced its share of ills, delights, and tragedies, but none can be compared with the joy, tragedy, and success which befell the brotherhood of TEP this past year.

Early in the year, old man fire saw fit to reach out without warning as an electrical fire from the floor below swept upward to Epsilon Lambda's quarters and caused extensive damage to the newly completed main room and the soon to be completed study room. This situation of despair was met with optimism and determination as the brotherhood formed a bond of greater unity to meet the new demands inflicted on Epsilon Lambda. Rebounding from the fire without a loss in operating efficiency, the brothers began looking for temporary meeting facilities, and finally, thanks to Alpha Omega Chapter, found quarters for the meetings which could not be held in school. In the meantime, the chapter continued operating in all other commitments.

Overwhelming success struck Epsilon Lambda twice during the year,

once socially and once politically. A special concert committee, under the leadership of Past Chancellor Harvey Mallement and aided by Brothers Al Weinstein, Richard Schweidel, and Mike Schweitzer, successfully organized promotion of one of the top social events of the season at CCNY. The affair, a folk concert featuring the renowned Weavers, was sponsored by Epsilon Lambda. With every brother working at the ticket centers and pushing private sales, every seat in the auditorium was occupied for the performance.

To this achievement was added the political success gained by Brothers Mike Schweitzer and Richard Schweidel as both gained positions on the IFC Executive Council for the new term. With greater representation than ever before in IFC, TEP should easily do its share for the fraternal community of CCNY.

Although Epsilon Lambda failed to successfully defend the IFC athletic crown they won last year, the chapter managed to remain in this year's running until the final weeks of the competition. It was a tough struggle maintaining an early season lead, and defeat became apparent as mid-year graduation losses silenced the softball bats and cut the legs from under the track team. Failure to capture the two main spring competitions proved the key to defeat. Amid defeat, however, shone rays

Amid defeat, however, shone rays of future victory as Epsilon Lambda's cagers fought their way to a winning season before the bubble burst in the semi-finals of the basketball tourney. It was the first victorious season since EL's inception and brought high hopes for next year.

Among the standout performers for the chapter this season were Brothers Pete Rosenberg (swimming), Bob Schick (basketball), Jeff Goldstein (softball), Joel Kaplan (volleyball), Steve Ganzell (football), and Fred Borah (bursar). The latest pledge class boasted two outstanding athletes in Marty Dunn and Al Harrison, both of whom should greatly enhance the athletic stock of the chapter.

Northeastern, Kappa Eta Phi

The scholastic year is closing, and Kappa Eta Phi chapter can look back on it as the most eventful and successful period of its great 38-year history.

Everything began with the completion of our goal on October 29, 1961, to become a part of the national fraternity, TEP. The installation of our chapter was held at the Boston Club attended by many notables from both TEP National and Northeastern. With the installation completed, we then proceeded to channel our energy and talents to prove that TEPS ARE TOPS at NU.

Our rush program, headed by Brother Dave Woolf, included numerous smokers, and various parties such as a twister and a beatnik affair. At the completion of the formal rush period, KZP obtained 19 excellent pledges. During their pledge program, the spirited pledgii were awarded with two outings; a Pledge Walk through Boston and a weekend camping trip. The Pledge Walk consisted of having the pledges dress in various comical attire, denoting such people as Mammy Yokum, a harem girl, Friar Tuck and numerous others, while they completed prescribed assignments throughout Bean Town. The pledge weekend at Myles Standish Reservation in Plymouth found everyone having a ball, taking advantage of the sports and activities which were available.

Our social season for the past year proved outstanding. In January, a Playboy Party was held at the Hotel Vendome to which all the local TEP chapters were invited. Our annual Marvin Gutten Scholarship Dance was held in April. At this dance, Brother Dave Woolf was awarded the Gutten Scholarship based upon both scholarship and service; and Arline Feibel was selected chapter sweetheart. Our Dinner Dance at the Chestnut Hill Country Club, in June, proved to be a great success with the first printing of an ad book. At this dance, the Merrill Lovinger Award, given to a brother of the chapter showing exemplary fraternalism, was given to Brother Peter Soltz. This summer, as in the past, Kappa Zeta Phi plans numerous beach parties, barbecues and outings.

Athletically, TEP excelled by acquiring first place in the IFC Hockey League behind goalie "Jacques" Small. In bowling, we tied for first in pinfall and points as Brother Larry Albert led the league with a candlepin average of 110. This year's softball team started strong led by superior pitching from Brothers Stan Natenson and Larry Albert. The outstanding athlete of the chapter, Brother Dan Aizley, was presented the Zeta Award at the Lovinger Dinner Dance.

During the year, Kappa Zeta Phi chapter took the initiative along with Xi, Eta, in renewing the Yankee Conclave to which all TEP chapters in the New England area were invited. Agenda for the Conclave included a registration cocktail party, a regional basketball tournament at which Epsilon Xi, Clark, won, and brunch.

At the present time, final arrangements are being made to acquire one of NU's dorms for a house. We hope to have the arrangements completed by the end of the summer, so that all will be ready for the coming school year.

One of our Brothers, Bob Berman, has recently made a name to fame by being both the manager and lead singer in the "Interludes", a singing group well known in the New England area.

The year is closing, and with the close comes elections and the arrival of a new and energetic executive board. The officers for the coming year are Dave Woolf—Chancellor, Al Sapoznick—Vice Chancellor, Gene Bernstein—Bursar, Ernie Gam—Historian, Dan Aizley—Warden, Ed Cohen—Scribe, and Don Shapiro—Chaplain.

(Ed. Note: Kappa Zeta Phi finished runnerup for the Plume trophy.)
—Harvey Berson

NYU (Heights), Epsilon Gamma

The squeals of screaming sirens plus flashing beams of red and blue lights saturated Andrews Avenue as the brotherhood of Epsilon Gamma was greeted by firemen extinguishing the accidental ignition of their Bronx chapter house. Even before the last smouldering ashes were put out, the brothers, led by Chancellor Steve Friedman and Vice-Chancellor Joel Albert, immediately began extending themselves to the utmost in rebuilding the fraternity, structurally and spiritually, and propelling the chapter to greater heights than ever before.

On campus, whenever leaders of the students meet, TEPmen are present. For Junior Class officers, Brother Barry Olshen, pledge warden, is Vice President, while Brother Twedge Friedman is Secretary of the class and Secretary of the Interclass Council. Brother Mike Macowski is Treasurer of the New Hall Dorm Council, and Historian Cary Sklaren is the Head Hazing Master for the Freshman Orientation program at school this fall.

When sports buffs discuss this past spring's intramural events, the name of Al Wollerstein strikes fear into the hearts of all competitive sprinters as he won an incredible double victory in the 100 and 220 yd. intramural championships. This feat, plus Epsilon Gamma's prowess in eight-man football, basketball, swimming, and cross country, enabled the chapter to finish a perspiring fourth in the race for the overall IFC sports trophy.

In the realm of scholastics, our brotherhood continued to make a very admirable showing. A large percentage of the membership is on Dean's List, while many of the seniors have been accepted into the finest medical and law schools in the nation. Individually, Junior Richie Hirsh was elected to Sigma Pi Sigma, and graduates Mike Brody and Dave Ross became members of Joseph Park Historical Society.

These accomplishments, however, are of the past, and when autumn rolls around, our old house on Andrews Avenue will have to be rebuilt, repainted, and refurnished.

-CARY SKLAREN

Clark, Epsilon Xi

For Epsilon Xi chapter, one of TEP's newest, this past year proved successful. The chapter fared well in rushing acquiring over fifteen new members, and finished admirably in all fraternity competition.

Individually, several members did well for themselves and for the chapter. Brother Bruce Jed, former Vice-Chancellor, was elected to "Gryphon" which is Clark's Men's Senior Honorary Society. He thus qualifies for the 1962-63 Who's Who in American Colleges.

Brother Robert Pellegrini has been elected to Psi Chi, national Psychology Honorary Society. Brother William Laveille is present chapter chancellor.

It will house 60 men and its spacious kitchen and dining facilities will accommodate over 120. The new house will occupy the site of the old house which was demolished after many years of TEP service and tradition in May.

The Alumni Building Committee received unanimous support for the building project. At the first unveiling of the New House plans before an Alumni meeting in Boston, over $6,000 was pledged. To date much more money has been committed to the fund, with alumni, friends, and undergraduates continuing their donations.

Tau Pi's new home, the first completely new fraternity house built at the University in over 20 years, came through efforts led by alumni Samuel Fein, Merwin Rubin, Irwin Goldblatt, Elliot Allen, Earl Winer, and undergraduate chancellors Fred Shotz and Barry Weiner. For TEP and Tau Pi, it is a dream come true.

Construct New Chapter House At Massachusetts

A brand new chapter house, worth over $250,000, is presently under construction at the University of Massachusetts for TEP's Tau Pi Chapter. With actual construction begun May 8, the house is expected to be completed during September.

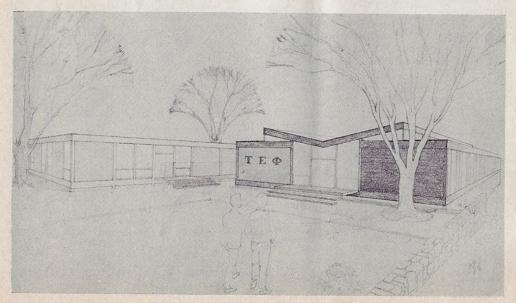

10 Cents-a 10th of a Dollar

Side show barkers used to talk in that language in the days before inflation.

We have another tale of woe about that thin dime. That is exactly what it costs us when the Post Office Department notifies us you have moved (the cost was doubled recently). Not much in itself, truly. But when the number of notifications mount—as they have an unfortunate habit of doing—the cost is a sizable one in the magazine budget.

MORAL: When you move, send your new address well in advance to: Tau Epsilon Phi Fraternity, 130 West 42nd Street, New York 36, N. Y.

For TEPmen at the University of Massachusetts, a new $250,000 house will be ready for occupancy this fall. Tau Pi's new house came through efforts led by local alumni and undergraduates, and will be the first new fraternity house at the University in over 20 years.

Queens, Ep. Theta

For Epsilon Theta Chapter at Queens College, this past school term proved most successful and resulted in added prestige for TEP at Queens

Dr. Harold Stoke, President of Queens College, visited the house on April 15. Before a large gathering, Dr. Stoke lectured about the college, and political science. The affair, one of the chapter's newly arranged cultural programs, also featured a discussion relating to the controversial speaker program at the City Colleges.

Earlier in the year, the chapter ran "The Rumble", the most successful dance held at Queens all year. Over 500 people were entertained by a live band and the vocal tones of "The Devotions". The dance succeeded due to the combined efforts of the entire brotherhood under the leadership of Chancellor Jay Wolpert Athletically, TEP proved its versatility by finishing in the semi-finals or finals in virtually every intramural sport. Brothers Mike Block and Steve Zeigfinger were named to the IFC all-star basketball team.

In other activities, the chapter won the Queens College Song Fest thanks to a skit written by Bro. Jeff Bennett. Epsilon Theta ranked second among sixty entrants in the college Calypso Carnival, and as a result, Bro. Irv Hymson should be appointed to next year's carnival committee.

Bro. Charles Laiken gained election as vice-president of IFC, while Bros. Elliot Barkan and Mike Korn made Phi Beta Kappa.

At a dinner dance held at the Coral Inn on June 8, Barry Blechman was installed Chancellor; Mike Block, Vice Chancellor; Steve Zimney, Scribe; and Bob Billig, Bursar.

We Need Your Help in Rushing to Get the Best Men

Now that all High School seniors have selected the colleges or universities they will attend in the Fall, you can help our chapters by submitting the names and addresses of such prospectives you know who will be entering schools in which we have chapters. Such information will give our chapters the jump in rushing them and may well be the deciding factor as to which house they go.

With booming enrollments in all institutions, and crowded conditions in all chapters, your recommendation may well help to get a boy you know, or want to be a TEP, to get a bid.

IT IS WITH THE GREATEST PLEASURE YOUR GRAND COUNCIL INVITES YOU TO

Become a LIFE SPONSOR of Tau Epsilon Phi

In celebration of the Golden Anniversary of the fraternity, the Grand Council offers you, the alumni and undergraduates, a new opportunity in membership.

Now, for the first time in the history of the fraternity, you can become a Life Sponsor, a new status that includes the Plume for life, freedom forever from all alumni dues, a hand engraved wall plaque suitable for framing and an engraved billfold identification card, PLUS the satisfaction of being a lifelong backer of TEP's great program for college men of every age.

Even discounting inflation and the possibility of a dues increase, it is still just plain good business sense to become a Life Sponsor. At the present dues rate of $5.00 per year, it takes only 20 years to match the purchase price of a Life Sponsorship.

Now is the time to join. The sooner you do it, your investment will grow and grow.

Life Sponsorship fees are $100, payable in one sum or in five annual, equal $20 installments. From that time on, you will be free of alumni dues forever.

Clip the coupon on this page and mail your check for $100 today!

wish to take this opportunity to become known as a of Tau Epsilon Phi. I have enclosed my check to the fraternity for the amount indicated below.

- $20 the first of five annual payments.

Fraternally,

Professional Directory

Brothers who are members of the National Alumni Chapter, or are Life Members may obtain listing in this Professional Directory by the Payment of an additional five dollars. This fee entitles the brother to a listing according to profession or business in four issues of the PLUME. If you desire a listing, kindly communicate with the National office.
